Redbridge Music Service (part of the wider Vision Redbridge & Culture Leisure Charitable Trust) is the lead organisation of the North East London Music Education Hub and enjoys a reputation for very high quality music education. Our pupils present over 50 concerts per year; recent concert venues have included the Royal Albert Hall, the Barbican, Windsor Castle and Buckingham Palace.

The successful applicants will be motivated team players a proven success record of teaching across a range of ages and abilities. Experience of conducting an ensemble and or choir would also be an advantage.

We are keen to recruit outstanding teachers and musicians that can help us maintain the quality of our provision and contribute to innovation. We believe in investing in our teachers and in return we expect a high level of engagement. If successful you will work with team of teachers dedicated to providing the best opportunities for our young musicians.

You will be based at our well-resourced Music Centre which is home to Redbridge Music School and numerous bands, orchestras and clubs and will work in schools around the London Borough of Redbridge.

As part of our pre-employment checks, applicants must be willing to undergo safeguarding screening, which will include checks with past employers and the Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS).
