

What are annual internal auditions for?

---

Redbridge Music School members are required to audition each year. These auditions are normally held in the spring term and help staff to monitor the progress of the pupils and to allocate appropriate ensemble places for the following year.

Pupils are also considered for individual 30 minute lessons during this process.